Vancouver: What do you get when you combine the most creative west coast gift company with the largest western distributor of marketing and promotional products?

The best one-stop-shopping for all of your Corporate Gifts and Promotional Products!

Laura Hansen, President of Image Group is pleased to announce the acquisition of Corporate Impressions, one of Canada's leading specialists in corporate gifts.

Christa MacPherson and Tammy Horton of Corporate Impressions have joined the Image Group team effective September 1st. Along with the same great service, Corporate Impression's clients will have access to the full range of promotional products and will enjoy volume discount pricing that Image Group can access.

Image Group will now be able to offer its clients a broad range of unique gifts, some of which have been exclusive to Corporate Impressions.

"Christa and Tammy are full of energy and they bring great new ideas," said Hansen. "Having them join our dynamic team will enhance the services we can bring to our clients."
